ABOUT TYLER

Tyler S. Grant is an internationally recognized composer, arranger, conductor, and clinician of music for concert bands, orchestras, and chamber ensembles of all levels. His music is featured regularly in performances by both region and all state honor ensembles and is also featured annually on Editor's or Publisher's Choice Repertoire Lists around the world. Since 2010, Tyler has regularly accepted commissions for new works and produced new publications for bands and orchestras each year. He credits his mentor Brian Balmages as pivotal to his success as a composer. Notable performance venues of his works include The Midwest Clinic, Carnegie Hall, Music for All's National Concert Band Festival, the Meyerson Symphony Center, the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, Bands of America Grand Nationals, and numerous state-wide, national, and international music conferences and conventions. In addition to composing and arranging, Tyler enjoys conducting and clinic engagements with ensembles throughout the United States. He has served as a clinician with over 100 school instrumental music programs and honor groups across more than 15 states. Tyler was a contributing author for Alfred Music Publishing Company's Sound Innovations: Ensemble Development series and has contributed interviews to numerous podcasts and articles including School Band & Orchestra Magazine and The Instrumentalist. He currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia, and maintains an active composing and conducting schedule. To learn more about Tyler, visit www.tylersgrant.com!

PROGRAM NOTES

A New Light is loosely inspired by my earlier work for young band, At Twilight. While At Twilight paints the image of sunset and the emerging night sky, I wanted to dig deeper into the meaning of night and how it relates to our everyday lives.

Night and darkness can be a metaphor for so many things. It can symbolize the great uncertainties of life, while also signifying a desire for guidance and direction. In my own life, I have had to learn that this cycle of uncertainty is not linear, but rather cyclical. The world will undoubtedly provide circumstances that cause darkness and uncertainty. However, we can survive these circumstances with the hope of a new dawn, and therefore, a new light to move us forward.

PERCUSSION NOTES

This work calls for a minimum of 7 percussionists. In the event you have less players, it is suggested to omit the Timpani part to ensure that all mallet parts are covered. If you have additional percussionists, it is suggested to double the vibraphone part on marimba with soft yarn mallets. It is discouraged to use xylophone for any mallet doublings in this work.

Yes, you can photocopy parts!

With the legal purchase of any piece published by Tyler S. Grant Music Works, LLC, you are granted a limited license to photocopy parts for your students.

Some restrictions apply.

May I photocopy instrumental parts for my ensemble's unique instrumentation?

Yes! I completely understand that each ensemble will vary in their needs for instrumental parts. Parts occasionally go missing, as well. As long as the photocopies stay within your school/organization, you may photocopy as reasonably needed!

I am performing your work at an adjudicated performance and will need extra conductor scores!

May I copy those for the adjudicators to use?

No. While instrumental parts may be photocopied for ensemble use as described above, conductor's scores may not be photocopied. Additional scores can be purchased from my website or through an authorized retailer.

May I upload PDFs of the instrumental parts to a secured online platform for our musicians to access?

Yes! However, the online platform you use must be password protected and inaccessible to anyone outside of your school/organization. My team frequently conducts checks online and will demand any uploaded images or files that do not follow this guideline be removed immediately.

May I duplicate the sheet music and give it to another individual, school, or organization?

Absolutely not. Duplicating and distributing music (including unlicensed photocopying and digital duplication) without permission is a blatant disregard and violation of U.S. Copyright Law. Such instances will be investigated and prosecuted to the full extent of United States & International Copyright Law.

May I create not-for-profit audio/video recordings of your pieces and share them on social media and other websites?

Certainly! As a matter of fact, I love searching for performances of my music online and greatly appreciate you sharing it with others! If you need licensing and permissions for a for-profit recording, please contact me through my website. www.tylersgrant.com

I have more questions! What should I do?

Contact me through my website. I am always happy to answer your questions!

Thank you for following these guidelines! Copyright is not meant to be scary or intimidating; it's the only way composers and arrangers protect their intellectual property. Your purchase helps support my entire team. Many publishers have a different set of guidelines for photocopying and duplicating their music. These guidelines are only for Tyler's music published through Tyler S. Grant Music Works, LLC.
